

By completing this you will:

- * bring your own background and experience to the reading
- * construct your own meaning from the text of the article
- * provide direct feedback to yourself and the class on your thoughts and understanding as you read

What to include in your entry:

- * 1st column: You're writing at least 3 quotes that you like, think are important, don't understand, prove a point, or have a personal connection to. You can print the article, highlight, annotate and make references to sections, if you like.
- * 2nd column: You're writing a response to each of the quotes that you chose in the 1st column.
